

William S. Bost III To Participate In RBC Centura Business Week At Meredith College

Ragsdale Liggett Attorney To Discuss Ethical Leadership In Panel Discussion

Oct. 11, 2007 - PRLog -- RALEIGH, N.C. – Ragsdale Liggett PLLC has announced that William S. Bost III, a member of the firm’s business law department, will be a panelist at the forum on “Ethical Leadership” on Tuesday, Oct. 16 at 6 p.m. at Cate Student Center’s Kresge Auditorium on the Meredith College campus in Raleigh. The panel is part of “Ethics on the Front Line,” a week-long series dedicated to ethical leadership in business, during RBC Centura Business Week at Meredith College. The week will also feature a discussion by Linda Trevino, Ph. D., entitled “Managing Business Ethics: Straight Talk About How to Do It Right,” on Monday, Oct. 15 at 10 a.m.

Bost has released two podcasts discussing ethics in an individual and corporate context. He is the author of What Does “Right” Mean?: Developing an Ethical Business Environment in the Mortgage Industry, which he wrote to give mortgage industry participants some assistance in developing an ethical framework in which to operate their individual and collective businesses, as well as co-author of Interstate Banking: A Guide to Fifty States. His practice at Ragsdale Liggett encompasses bank and non-bank financial services, mortgage banking, securities, mergers and acquisitions, real estate law and corporate law.
