Sarah Cochran, be Youngest ever to Receive Honor of Giving Opening Invocation to GAMA International's Leadership and Management Program

July 1, 2008 - PRLog -- LAS VEGAS, NV -- The Gallacher Agency of American National Insurance and the Great Basin Region wish to congratulate Sarah Cochran on being the youngest member of GAMA International ever to give the Opening Invocation of the organization's annual Leadership and Management Program, which is being held this year in San Francisco, March 16-19, 2008.

Sarah Cochran is the Personal Lines Manager for the Great Basin Region of American National Insurance Company. It is because of Sarah's commitment to GAMA International through her active role as an inaugural member of the Leaders of Today and Tomorrow (LoTT) that she was given the honor presenting the invocation.

The Gallacher Agency of American National Insurance has been a community leader in providing estate and risk coordination to its clientele throughout Nevada since 1988, through the use of its multiple lines of insurance products and their related services.

The Great Basin Region of American National Insurance is led by Regional Director Ken Gallacher and Associate Regional Director Terry Cochran. The Great Basin Region of American National Insurance encompasses all American National agencies within Nevada, Utah, Idaho, and Southern California.
