

WWISH Announces Nonprofit Women Connect Event to Benefit (Wo)Men™ Speak Out

Today Laura Cruikshank, president and CEO of Women's Wellness & Integrated Social Health (WWISH), announced that WWISH will host a Women Connect Event on Thursday, October 2 from 5:30 to 9:00 p.m. in Seattle.

Sept. 10, 2008 - PRLog -- Today Laura Cruikshank, president and CEO of Women's Wellness & Integrated Social Health (WWISH), announced that WWISH will host a Women Connect Event on Thursday, October 2 from 5:30 to 9:00 p.m. in Seattle. This special evening will celebrate the recent launch of WWISH, an online interactive magazine that offers support, resources and editorial pertaining to women's issues and lifestyles. WWISH will also celebrate the unveiling of its website's latest look and a new introductory video in early October.

The event will be held at Nalanda West, 3902 Woodland Park Avenue North, Seattle. Guests are invited to share a toast, connect with other women and enjoy delicious Indian food provided by Chutney's. Tickets for the event are $20 each to cover food, wine and one ticket for a special prize drawing. Additional tickets may be purchased for $5 each to win handmade jewelry, massages, private coaching sessions and more in a special drawing. All proceeds for the event will benefit (Wo)Men Speak Out™.

"So far, the response to WWISH has been overwhelming," Cruikshank said. "Local organizations are anxious to become a part of our resource team, and women are turning to us for advice and inspiration."

As an online interactive magazine and virtual women's center, WWISH offers information and resources on legal issues, healthcare, domestic abuse, career, education, financial planning, parenting, aging, fashion, fitness, lifestyle issues and more. The site, <http://www.wwish-inc.com>, features an online forum and chat room, calendar, professional spotlights and useful articles, helping to connect women to each other and to relevant service providers.

(Wo)Men Speak Out™ is a non-profit organization dedicated to eradicating rape, sexual assault and gender violence. The organization seeks to educate both men and women, cultivating healthy relationships and gender equity. For more information, visit <http://www.womenspeakoutnow.com>.
