

Proactive Tax Strategist to present in Greater Cincinnati

CPA, Mike McCormick, will address the members of the Greater Cincinnati Real Estate Investors Association on November 20, 2008. The discussion will focus on strategies to reduce the burden of income taxes on business owners and real estate investors.

Oct. 30, 2008 - PRLog -- Michael McCormick of Mueller & Company CPAs, Inc. is pleased to announce that he will be presenting Tax Planning Strategies for Small Businesses and Real Estate Investors at the Greater Cincinnati Real Estate Investors Association bimonthly meeting on November 20, 2008

“Most accountants are historians,” says McCormick. “They’re not the ones with the arrows in their back. Their clients are! I’m changing that with Pro-Active tax planning to make the numbers work for taxpayers before it’s too late.”

During his session he’ll show you how:

- To pay for your kids education with pre-tax money.
- To minimize your self-employment tax and income tax at the same time.
- To use the tax code to deduct 100% of your medical expenses as a business expense.
- To structure your entities to maximize tax savings.
- The presidential election results may impact your taxes.

Meet Mike on Thursday November 20, 2008 beginning at 7:30 PM at the Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency 1740 Langdon Farm Road Cincinnati 45237.
