Dec. 26, 2008 - PRLog -- Ahmedabad, Arena Animation’s CG Road & Maninagar, Ahmedabad centers organized “The Animated Movie “Jumbo” Showcase Event” at City Gold, Ashram Road, Ahmedabad.

The event started with new concept of First Day First Show Series where all the students will enjoy the movie “Jumbo” & the First Day First Show of many upcoming Animation & Special Effect related movies throughout the year. The event was followed by the Award Ceremony of the Creative Hunt Competition & Christmas Celebration.

On this occasion Mr. Vishal Vora, Regional Head, Gujarat, Arena Animation said “Overseas entertainment giants like Walt Disney, Imax and Sony are increasingly outsourcing cartoon characters and special effects to India. Other companies are outsourcing animation from India for commercials and computer games. Global entertainment majors like Walt Disney, Imax, Warner Brothers and Sony are signing up huge contracts with Indian animation companies. With major animation companies contemplating expansion plans, demand for more workforces is on the cards.”

Mr. Ruresh Vayas, Area Sales Head, Gujarat, Arena Animation “said that Arena is a huge platform for animation students to learn, showcase their talent. I take this opportunity to congratulate all students and staff members for making this event a great success.

Mr. Anish Shah, Centre Head, Arena Animation said “The objective of the creative Hunt competition was to focus on & promote the professional skill sets of students such as Originality, Creativity, Technical Proficiency, Presentation Skills & Time Management, required in today’s Animation industry. This competition focused on enhancing not just the technical skills of the students, but also their ability to do some research and development to produce an effective piece of work”.
