

Fine Wedding Jewellery Ideas from Kabiri Designers

Kabiri London New Jewellery Collection Launched

Feb. 27, 2009 - PRLog -- Kabiri offers an eclectic range of fine wedding jewellery perfect for your special day. Whether it's an engagement ring, bridal jewellery or bridesmaid gifts, Kabiri has jewellery for all styles, tastes and budgets.

Engagement Rings

So you are ready to take that next step in your relationship and are looking for that extra special ring. Our fine jewellery designers at Kabiri offer a range of perfect & unique engagement rings.

Kabiri's recently opened fine jewellery cellar in Covent Garden sees the launch of a range of exclusive fine jewellery designers. Many of the collections have been selected for their design and we have opted away from the classic format of selling engagement rings. Although all our designers use the finest materials, each piece of jewellery is a formidably designed one off piece – so expect the wearable with an unusual twist.

For a classic diamond ring with a twist see the opulent rose cut designs by K Brunini, her pieces can be stacked so why stop at one when you can keep on adding as the years go by?. Award winning goldsmith Nina Basharova whose diamonds sit in barbed wire style settings are rings with a rock and roll edge. Roberto Marroni's diamond dome ring is a stunning alternative to a simple brilliant cut diamond band, or how about something a little bit simpler from like a Megan Thorne trillion cut diamond band. Lena Skadegard's tourmaline rings are a perfect alternative to a diamond ring, or for an antique feel Rajiv Arora's rings would be a good choice. Some of our designers such as Roberto Marroni even offer a bespoke design service and can design wedding bands that compliment the engagement ring.

Bridal Jewellery

Kabiri Covent Garden is the only place to choose your bridal jewellery sets. Relax with a glass of champagne as a personal advisor helps select the perfect jewellery for your big day. You can even have your wedding dress delivered to the store so you can try the whole outfit together in the comfort of our luxury fitting room. Whether the jewellery should be minimal such as an akkah diamond solitaire necklace or dramatic like a Katherine Wardropper embellished pearl necklace, Kabiri's personal advisors will make sure the complete outfit is what the bride has dreamt about.

Bridesmaid Gifts

To say thank you to bridesmaids on your big day, give them a special piece of jewellery such as an Allumer bracelet or initial necklace. A Giles and Brother or Ginette NY pendant would be perfect to wear on the day and would make the perfect bridesmaid jewellery gift as well. Or for the head bridesmaid how about a diamond redline?

Kabiri London offers a wide selection of unique designer jewellery.
