May 5, 2009 - PRLog -- USA Today recognizes the value of the Self-Catering Accommodation Experience, something Universal Vacations has supplied many thousands of Vacationers from around the World that come to Florida looking for that "Something Special" Vacation.

Universal Vacations has been helping buyers purchase their very own piece of Florida paradise for more than two decades and now more than ever, investors are putting their money into condominiums, while vacationers are discovering all of the benefits to renting a condominium over traditional accommodations like a hotel.

As stated in the Travel Smart Section of the "The Weekend Edition of USA Today", there has never been a better time to rent a condo for your vacation. "With most condos, you get a living room, multiple bedrooms and a kitchen, which allows you to save on the cost of eating out. Plus you have additional space and the comfort only a privately owned accommodation can offer.

Universal Vacations and Universal Miami latest endeavor in the condominium market is the opening of their newest location in Florida, Universal Vacations president Gary Young commented on the condominium operation in Miami.

"We are delighted to be in a position to offer the consumer the alternative vacation experience, previously the guest has been limited to the traditional Hotel or Resort type accommodation, we can now offer luxurious beachfront condominiums which accommodate more than a hotel room ever would, this not only give better value for money, but allows the guest total flexibility, with all the necessities making this "Self-Catering Accommodation" have that Home from Home feel"

What better way to spend your vacation in complete luxury nestled between the Atlantic Ocean and Intracoastal Water Way, just minutes north of Miami Beach and within easy reach of the Miami and Ft. Lauderdale airports.

Whether you are looking to purchase or rent on Florida's east or west coast, Universal Vacations has you covered, offering exquisite properties in both Miami and in Fort Myers/Bradenton. Every property, be it a luxury condo, stylish town home or private vacation home, offers a swimming pool or beachfront suite and each has been individually furnished to the highest specifications to make your stay as relaxing and care free as possible.

Our stellar reputation has also garnered us contracts to supply vacation accommodations to the worlds leading travel partners, so if you're looking to purchase, this gives our homeowners a good return on the running costs of your property.

So, for a unique, memorable vacation, or for a sound investment with solid returns, look to Universal Vacations for all your vacation and investment needs.
