SPRINGFIELD, MO – Best selling author Thomas Horn has announced a contest to find the true "Lost Symbol," which he says Dan Brown did not reveal last week.

The book "Apollyon Rising 2012: The Lost Symbol Found and the Final Mystery of the Great Seal Revealed" will be released by Defender Publishing later this year, but is already #1 in some categories at mega online retailer Amazon.com.

Defender worked with sponsor <http://www.SurvivorMall.com> to raise the contest prize of $10,000. The winner will also receive an "enigmatic item" that the publisher is being tight-lipped about. The only thing known about it is from the contest website, where it says, "It is a nearly 200 year-old item ("the item") dated to a pivotal year in American History when a Freemason president opposed a non-Freemason president, who believed Freemasonry would undermine the country."

Two youtube videos (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CupXLctFjIQ>) providing details of the contest have been downloaded over 30,000 times already, and thousands of people are signing up to be notified when the book is released.

"My motivation is to reach out and to bring this important message to the Dan Brown types," Horn said in a statement about the contest and book. "With prophecy unfolding before our eyes and more and more people questioning the divinity of Jesus, a generation is being set up for a colossal sucker-punch. All kinds of people are looking for answers about the future, and are in need of hope. We have produced something we believe will challenge the world and lead multitudes that would never darken the doors of a church to the light of Christ."

Early copies of the book will be available sometime in November to those that sign up to be notified.
