

GVO The New MLM Scam Or Is It Real?

Global Viral Opportunities (GVO), formally known as Kiosk, launches what they bill as the Biggest MLM launch in history. The question is this... are they for real or just another company out to scam the public and make a quick buck.

Oct. 9, 2009 - PRLog -- Global Viral Opportunities (GVO), formally known as Kiosk, on October 20, 2009 are launching what they bill as the "Biggest MLM launch in history."The question is this... are they for real or just another company out to scam the public and make a quick buck.

According to MLM Expert Bryan L. Kinney and author of the "Power of One" EBook there are a number of characteristics a that a legitimate MLM Company must have but... "...The number one determining factor is .. Do they have a product that the public wants regardless of income incentives?"

On this front GVO has proven themselves. Even though they are officially launching on October 20, 2009 they have been in business for over 12 years marketing web hosting services as well as many other very popular products such as

"Easy Video Producer" A very simple to use on video production software program (This is a great and a lot of fun you can try it for free at <http://videopromotor.com/>)

"E-responder" A combination Auto Responder System and Bulk Emailing program similar to Aweber and Constant Contact

"Hot Conference" A very sophisticated on line Video Conferencing System complete with white board, desktop sharing, the ability to present power point presentations and much more.

They have been successfully marketing these products along with their Web Hosting Service for many years and have managed to obtain an impressive list of clients.

Mike Filsaime, Tom Beal, Stephen Pierce, Frank Kern, Tellman Knudson, Todd Gross, Michael Cheney, Mark Call, Dina Call, Ken Hammond, Jeff Johnson, Frank Rumbauskas, Frank Bauer ,Derrick Van Dyke, Ewen Chia, Mike Koenigs, Frank Sousa, Daegen Smith, Glenn Mosser and many many more

In fact there customer base reads like a Who's Who in the Internet and Network Marketing World. To say they have a definite product that is wanted would be an understatement.

They started in Canada and literally out grew the bandwidth that the Country of Canada could provide.

They have recently set up a Multi Million dollar data center here in the Good Old USA and have bundled all of their products into one affordable package of only $44.95. Now regarding their 2x7 Matrix System that may be another story.

Historically Matrix Systems, especially binary matrix systems like GVO's, has had problems especially with attorney generals across the board. However according to Rod Cook a leading MLM Watchdog and MLM Consultant

"...The Binary turns into sheer dynamite when combined with a hot product.... Various law enforcement (FTC, AG, DA's) don't like the Binary plan because it looks like....errr guess what? A pyramid. So if you are going to use the Binary you have to "keep it squeaky" clean and watch your product and sales wording very carefully..”

One of the most impressive aspects of GVO has been their customer service. So if that is reflections of how they maintain thier company this may very well turn out to be a true winner.

So based upon our research it appears there is nothing to indicate that the opportunity at GVO is not what it claims to be. If it is going to be the biggest launch in MLM history who knows? So far they have been very impressive.
