Nov. 6, 2009 - PRLog -- Discover the secret benefits of the Master Cleanse for yourself and you just might believe.

The Master Cleanse diet, originally developed by Stanley Burroughs, is a type of fasting cleanse used to eliminate unwanted toxins in your body and as an added benefit of the master cleanse you lose weight. Notably much of this is excess water weight however many have claimed to lose this weight and kept it off.

Do you find that you routinely clean your home? Why do you do that? It is none other than to eliminate the dirt, grime and germs that collect. That is also how our body works. Because your body can't possibly filter out all the toxic waste it does the next best thing and that's store the waste to prevent it from eating away at your vital organs. When the body (intestines, colon) becomes clogged, our body stops absorbing necessary nutrients. Doing a colon cleanse is a way of cleaning our body and making it run efficiently.

The master cleanse can Help you lose up to 20 pounds, look younger, ease chronic pain, cleanse your body of internal waste, and boost your energy levels. The Master Cleanse is set up to reset your eating habits and break you of eating foods that are commonly bad for you. This bad stuff like food additives and toxins can cause weight gain and decreased metabolism and aging.

Benefits of the Master Cleanse:

1. During the cleanse you will drink a large amount of liquids, this alone can detoxify your body.
2. The cleanse gives your body a break from excesses of protein (which can be toxic in large doses), food additives, fats, food allergens, and other various things which your body either has a hard time breaking down or reacts badly to.
3. Its ability to help someone identify food allergies that they may not have known they had. During a state of absence from common foods we eat, we allow our bodies to reset themselves. After the master cleanse, when a person returns to eating what they always have, they can easily identify foods that cause them to have allergic reactions. Constant contact with foods that we are allergic to can cause all sorts of health problems and disease as it can weaken our immune system.
4. Help you drop fat and lose weight fast
5. Break unhealthy habits
6. Give you a major energy boost
7. Increase mental clarity and focus
8. Make you look younger

9. Strengthen your immune system
10. Give you more strength and stamina
11. Relieve aches and pains
12. Even revitalize your sex life

The Master Cleanse is a natural way to get rid of harmful toxins and fecal matter that may be clogging your intestines. If you are looking for a safe and effective means of treating some of the symptoms and problems that your body may be experiencing. This is not just a process for people who experience constipation, but it is beneficial for anyone who is looking to feel better as well as strengthen their inner organs.

By the end of the Master Cleanse, most people will not only experience no constipation and healthier bowels, but your body will be cleansed and rejuvenated, and you'll feel incredible!

Health fads come and go, but for more then 5 decades the Master Cleanse has been quietly bringing relief to anyone willing to try it for 10 days. And the nice thing is anyone can do the Master Cleanse without any special equipment, exotic ingredients, or expensive supplements. Unlike modern health fads cooked up by corporate America the Master Cleanse was designed to help you NOT corporate America.
