

Fashion Chicago Magazine features the Summer 2010 Collection of Alex Vidal

Fashion Chicago Magazine reviewed the Spring Summer 2010 collection of Alex Vidal during their recent trip to Valencia Fashion Week 2009. The event was held in Valencia Spain.

Dec. 8, 2009 - PRLog -- Alex Vidal jr. is the brightest star that shown in this season's Spring 2010 Valencia's Fashion week. The first dress that caused a loud buzz was the gray skorts. The outfit has wide white collars. Pair this outfit with matching dress sandals. You are ready for a night on the town with your favorite friend. You can also wear this piece casually by wearing regular sandals.

The second brilliant piece from this collection was grey business suit. But, this is not your typical outfit. The sleeves are longer and uncuffed. This outfit is worn with a black silk top with pink polka dots. The only accessory needed is a pair of silver stilettos.

The next dress is a black pinstripe piece that very sexy and form fitting. It can be worn to work and for cocktails after five. Vidal juxtaposed black silk top with pinstripes with wide sleeves and pockets. His collection is designed for the modern woman on the go!

"Asphalt melted under the tracks of a high-heeled shoe... heat... long nocturnal evenings.. the summer in the city."

The greatest outfit was a stunning asymmetrical white Polka dot evening gown. It sexy and elegant is showing a slit on the left side. It's very tres chic. Alex Vidal jr. is a young fashion designer who is on the rise. He is going to be bigger than Tom Ford. Vidal knows how to match the perfect hue with the female silhouette. This really sets him apart from other fashion designers.
