

Building a better tomorrowwith Beads!

We welcome you to join us at the new Virginia Beach Intergalactic show August 14th & 15th at the Khdiva Temple in Chesapeake from 10am-5pm both days. For more exhibitor information and a $2 off admission coupon visit www.beadshows.com.

July 23, 2010 - PRLog -- The craft & hobby industry reported a 5% growth in 2009 creating a $27 billion dollar industry. Jewelry making makes up $1,321 million dollars of the $27 billion; reports the Craft & Hobby Association. By creating and designing with beads you are helping to fuel the American economy while having the satisfaction of creating beautiful jewelry to sell, give as gifts or add to your personal collection.

Intergalactic Bead & Jewelry Shows prides itself on offering jewelry makers a wide selection of unique, quality beads at a great value. We welcome you to join us at the new Virginia Beach Intergalactic show August 14th & 15th at the Khdiva Temple in Chesapeake from 10am-5pm both days.

At the show you'll find row after row of beautiful beads in all shapes and sizes sparkling brightly. There are over 70 tables of beads and beading supplies from exhibitors across the country.

You'll find an exceptional display of ancient and modern quality beads and jewelry as well as precious and semi precious gemstones, dazzling emeralds, rubies, gorgeous freshwater pearls, and glamorous seed and raku beads. Just starting out? No problem you can choose from tools and kits to start you new jewelry collection.

Rather than looking at thousands of beads online and wondering if the photo is accurate. Come hold the beads in your hand and know exactly the color, size and cut before you buy. No Internet photo or catalogue can give you the true color and feel of the bead.

See thousands of quality beads before you buy... There's a fantastic selection in one easy shopping location. Visitors will be able to examine the beads first hand before they buy and find the perfect bead to create their own unique jewelry.

Here's what some of the customers had to say about the Intergalactic shows.

Rita Greivenkamp, "you just can't find this many choices at such good prices at the bead shops."

Julia Orwig, "this is the best Bead Show here. I always make time to attend, visit my favorite vendors & see what's new & exciting."

All of the Intergalactic shows are open to the public, in indoor facilities and have both wholesale and retail pricing. To receive wholesale pricing please bring copies of your state tax id.

All the visitors will enjoy the ambience and excitement of the Intergalactic Bead & Jewelry Show. Designers and crafters alike will have a chance to discuss new ideas, techniques and color schemes.

If you're looking for a great value on beautiful or unique beads then come to the Intergalactic show. For more information visit <http://beadshows.com/index.jsp>.
