

Near Death Experience With a Twist

Loved: A Transcendent Journey by Mary Deioma is a stunningly original book, based on direct personal experiences. Mary tackles life's big questions with authority, clarity, humility, honesty, and a refreshing sense of humor.

SANTA ANA, Calif. - June 21, 2014 - PRLog -- Loved: A Transcendent Journey by Mary Deioma adds a fresh new voice to the NDE world. This bold spiritual explorer deliberately braves new territories in consciousness in order to discover what exists beyond the veil. Her story is an NDE with a twist; she was not near death and remained conscious during her first experience.

Mary has broken the code to enlightenment. Using her original system based on the near death experience, she ventures to the final frontier of consciousness. She is promising nothing less than the possibility of a direct experience of God. Her system is simple and prepares one to be in the presence of the divine. She offers practical insights as to how to use this information in our day-to-day lives.

Her personal experience of the divine is written clearly with detailed descriptions that ground this seemingly impossible goal into the realm of the possible. Her story conveys a new paradigm of the nature of the universe, while paralleling similar details of a typical NDE.

"Everyone who seeks to answer life's big questions should own, read, and ponder this jewel of a book." ~ David Sunfellow Sedona, AZ IANDES leader Amazon Review
