

Now on the Internet: Sports Radio WRBZ 850 The Buzz & WDNC 620 The Bull

Sports radio fans can now access local programming through streaming feature

Oct. 24, 2007 - PRLog -- Raleigh, NC-- The Triangle area's top radio stations, Sports Radio WRBZ 850 The Buzz and WDNC 620 The Bull today announced they their local programming is now streaming on the Internet at www.850thebuzz.com. This means that sports radio fans nationwide can access local sports news via the World Wide Web.

"Our listeners are Internet savvy so providing them with access to local programming on the Web was an easy decision. They can catch up on missed programming by tuning in to past shows posted online, and streaming access makes it easier for them to tune in no matter where they are," stated WRBZ/WDNC General Manager Brian Maloney. "Furthermore, the new streaming feature will allow WRBZ and WDNC to extend its listener base, further establishing us as the market leader among sports radio stations in the area."

The stations' top weekday shows that are now streaming include "The Adam Gold Show" on WRBZ from 6 AM to 10 PM; "The Sports Pig" show with Morgan Patrick on WDNC from 10 AM to 1 PM; "The David Glenn Show" from 3 PM to 6 PM; and "The Chris Clark Show" from 6 PM to 7 PM.

The stations will also stream weekend programming, including Dave Droschak, on Saturdays 9 AM to 12 PM; Amnon Nissan's "Computers 2k7," Sunday's from 8 AM to 10 AM; as well as "Sports Sunday" with Gordon Miller from 10 AM to 12 PM.

When not streaming live, WRBZ and WDNC will offer "replays" of shows from earlier in the day.
