Feb. 26, 2008 - PRLog -- Contract phones and the pay as you go phones-<http://www.additnow.co.uk/payasyougo.asp> are the hottest mobile phone deals available in the market today. There has always been a speculation among the consumers regarding these mobile phone deals. These phone deals come to the users with various benefits. To plunge into a better decision, the consumer has to know what her or his requirements are.

If you have the habit of changing your mobile number at regular intervals, then it is the best option to select the contract phones-<http://www.additnow.co.uk/contractphones.asp>. These phones come to the users in the form of contract between the network service provider and the mobile phone user. As per this contract, the consumer has to pay a fixed amount for a certain period of time. This period of time may differ depending on the form of contract such as 12 months or 18 months. This effective mobile phone deal would enable you to save big sum of money. The consumer can also avail certain benefits such as subsidized call rates, free talktime and many other free gifts too. The users can also avail high tech multimedia facilities at minimized costs with these contract phone deals.

The Pay as you go phones would enable you to get your favorite handsets without spending too much for the same. The user does not have to sign any contract to avail this mobile phone deal. However, the users have to buy a phone card to make and receive calls. The users are free to switch over to other network service providers very easily under this mobile phones-<http://www.additnow.co.uk/>. But the users of this deal would not be able to make or receive phone calls beyond their available balance. This unique feature of the phone would enable you to cut down your monthly mobile phone bills. With the Pay as you go mobile phone deal, the users have to call the network service provider to sign themselves up. The service provider would then give its customer a number. The Pay as you go account of the user then gets activated. The user can make and receive calls depending on the balance of his or her card. With the expiry of the recharge card, the customer will have to purchase another card to access the service again.
