

Cruise Ship Ms Vistamar In Peru

Condor Travel greeted 300 passengers that arrived at the Port of Callao

March 5, 2008 - PRLog -- Nearly 300 passengers on the cruise ship MS Vistamar arrived at the port of Callao, in Lima on February 8th as part of a long voyage that is taking them to the major ports of the world. Once again CONDOR TRAVEL, the largest wholesale operator in Latin America, responded to the distinguished visitors by deploying all the experience and prestige that it has earned throughout its three decades in the tourism sector.

CONDOR TRAVEL offered passengers a city tour in Lima, including a visit to the famous Gold Museum. An important group of the passengers then enjoyed an unforgettable 3-day tour of the city of Cuzco and Machu Picchu. Another group of passengers took a variety of excursions that took them to the Church of San Lucas de Colán, the Colán beach, the city of Catacaos and the not-to-be-missed traditional exhibition of Peruvian paso horses.
