David New is the father of Michael New, the young man who as a member of the US Army refused to wear the UN beret and insignia based on his rights under UCMJ and the US Constitution. 13 years later the fight in regards to the case, the UN and the secrecy of Bill Clinton's Executive Order is not yet over.

After the recent incidents between Georgia and Russia and talk about possible US/UN intervention I thought it was important to bring this story back to the forefront.

David New is the Vice Chairman of the Constitutionalist Party in Texas and he welcomes discussion in regards to why he left the Republican Party after fighting with the government for so long.

David New is also the founder of "Independent Conservative Voters.com"
<http://www.independentconservativevoters.com/>

Always passionate, his views may be potentially controversial to some, and right on with others, his ideas and views were crafted based on his experience with his son's case, the US Government, his belief in the Constitution, The Bill of Rights, and common sense.

Join us tonight at 9pm CST, 10pm EST in The Lion's Den on www.blogtalkradio.com
