Oct. 29, 2008 - PRLog -- Over the past few years, Creativity for Kids has developed a line of seasonal products to capture the holiday spirit with creative activities that are fun for families to do together. Enjoy not only the crafting experience, but also the unique decorative items you'll have for your home.

New for 2008 is the Beaded Snowflakes Ornaments Set [$19.99]. Make 6 beautiful "crystal and ice" snowflakes from a variety of iridescent and metallic beads. The ornaments are perfect for decorating your tree, or use them to adorn packages. Gift envelopes are included if you want to give an ornament to a friend, and they make a wonderful gift for teachers.

Two new PlayFoam kits add to holiday crafting fun. Kids will enjoy making a sparkling snowman out of PlayFoam. Decorate the snowman with a felt hat, scarf and other accessories. Best of all, he never melts. Kids can transform green sparkle PlayFoam into a mini-tree. Decorate the tree with tinsel, ornaments, and a star tree topper. Sparkle PlayFoam Snowman and Sparkle PlayFoam Tree are both for kids age 5 and up and have a suggested retail price of $4.99.

Create other holiday treasures with two ornament kits: Decorate 4 wooden frame ornaments with glitter, rhinestones, beads and bangles with Holiday Memories Ornament Frames [$19.99], and decorate 6 ceramic ornaments with 3-D paint that looks like frosting with Ceramic Holiday Ornaments [$19.99].

Add a festive touch to your house with Shrinky Dinks Holiday Fun [$15.99]. Create an adorable silver tree out of sparkle pipe cleaners. Then use colored pencils to make shrinky dinks with pre-printed holiday themed designs to decorate the tree. Continue the holiday crafting with Window Décor Holiday Stencil [$17.99]. This kit contains 6 colors of chalk paint plus a variety of stencils with holiday season designs to use to add some festivity and brightness to your windows.
