

Fundraiser Auction at Historic Granada Theater to help fellow paranormal community family member

Journey Paranormal Society™ hosting LIVE Fundraiser Auction & Screening of "Dead House" produced by Heather Woodward, P.I.S.A. Jan. 3, 2009, Historic Granada Theater, 303 Euclid Ave, Ontario, CA 91762 Admission for restoration of Granada Theater.

Jan. 1, 2009 - PRLog -- We all know the movie "It's a Wonderful Life." And we all remember how the whole town came together at Christmastime to help their friend and neighbor. Now it's our turn.

Bill Murphy (13 Pictures.com) who so many of you know through his years of research, events, documentaries (The Queen Mary, A Floating Phenomenon, The Stanley Effect, The World's Largest Ghost Town, A Post- Katrian Paranormal Investigation) and appearances on Darkness Radio has had several tough setbacks in a row.

His fiancée Anita McMillan was injured in a severe fall and fractured numerous bones. She is also a hemophiliac (www.hemophilia.org) which means her blood doesn't clot correctly and broken bones are like poison to her.

Now, we find out that not only has Anita lost her job, but Bill has been laid off from his job, too. That's three quick punches that would be hard for anyone to take. But in this economy and at this time of year it's even worse.

Start the Journey, A Paranormal Meetup Group™ in conjunction with Journey Paranormal Society™ is hosting a LIVE Fundraiser Auction for Bill Murphy and Anita McMillan.

The LIVE Fundraiser Auction for Bill Murphy and Anita McMillan and screening of the documentary, "Dead House" produced by Heather Woodward of The Paranormal Investigators of Southern Arizona (includes scenes with Bill Murphy, one of the investigators) and a Q&A with the director and some of the investigators, takes place January 3, 2009 at the Historic Granada Theater, 303 Euclid Ave, Ontario, CA 91762 The $7 per person admission goes towards restoration efforts of the Granada Theater.
