

Carmel Curios Offers Great Deals on Sandcastle Figurines

Make your beach-themed event sparkle with affordable sandcastle centerpieces!

Feb. 16, 2009 - PRLog -- Started in 2005 by John R. Davis in the Carmel Mountain area of San Diego, Carmel Curios has since grown into the largest retailer of Mr. Sandman products in the United States.

"We are constantly receiving letters and e-mails from customers who express how happy they are with the product," said Mr. Davis. "They expect the sculptures to be great when they order, but the most common compliment we get is how pleasantly surprised they were when they opened the box."

Made with real sand, these beautiful sculptures are of exceptional quality, intricately detailed, and sized for every budget. They make a perfect gift for the collector or beach bum in your life, or use with a beach theme party or wedding. The larger sandcastles are ideal for table centerpieces at your beach theme party or wedding reception, while the smaller sculptures are perfect for favors. Add the finishing touch to your decorations with seashells and candle holders.

You'll find that for events such as weddings, the volume discounts available along with their already low prices will put your cost below anything you can get from the competition. In fact, they encourage you to shop around and compare prices and return policies before making your final decision.
