

Full-Service Medical Spa Announces Opening in Raleigh

New facility to offer a full range of skincare treatments

May 12, 2009 - PRLog -- RALEIGH, NC – A new medical spa has opened off Dresser Court in Raleigh. Midtown Medi-Spa is operating out of Raleigh Plastic Surgery Center, located at 1112 Dresser Court, and will offer clientele the most advanced techniques, products, and results-oriented services.

Midtown Medi-Spa is owned and operated by Elizabeth Paner, a licensed aesthetician formally trained in Cary, NC in the field of aesthetics. Paner extended her aesthetics training with several post-graduate courses with an emphasis on skin rejuvenation. She has also managed, consulted, and launched several successful business operations, has served as a consultant with area medi-spas, was a regional make-up artist with Estee Lauder, and has been featured in several area women's magazines.

Paner says that Midtown Medi-Spa clients should expect to be pampered. "If my clients are happy and seeing results, then my technique speaks volumes," says Paner. Her approach is customized to the individual and is designed to deliver fantastic results. "I love what I do and love to see my customers' smiles. It's my passion...not work."

Midtown Medi-Spa provides a full range of skincare treatments including microdermabrasion, advance and light chemical peels, clinical facials, and mineral make-up application. The spa is looking to expand its services in mid 2009 to offer clients the best in laser, skin rejuvenation, and hair removal options.
