Nokia E52 now in Pakistan, available at a launching price of 26,500/-

Aug. 19, 2009 - PRLog -- Nokia E52 Pakistan - Today, Nokia launches the latest addition to its E-series in Pakistan, Nokia E52 is now available in the market at a launching price of around 26,500 Pak Rupees including taxes and subsidies.

"The Nokia E52 is designed for people who need performance both professionally and privately. People who require features long battery life, sound quality and sleek design," says, Product Manager, Nokia Pakistan. "

The new cell phone based on the successful Nokia E51 and have been created with similar priorities. Nokia E52 has improved talk and voice quality, with almost a month of standby and Bluetooth and hsdpa, A-GPS with Nokia Maps and a 3.2 Megapixel camera.

Nokia E52 also integrates easily with the Land Line telephone system, and is a complement or a replacement for desktop office phones. The phone has solutions Call Connect, which integrates Nokia Mobile with the company PBX. It gives people the opportunity to be available through a single telephone number, helps companies reduce the number of mobile phones and voice mailboxes to be managed and cost by enabling features such as "least cost routing".

Nokia E52 also has improved e-mail features with a new interface that integrates excellently with Nokia Messaging, a service that sends a wide range of popular e-mail accounts directly into the cell phone, and Nokia's enterprise solution for e-mail, Mail for Exchange and IBM Lotus Notes Traveler. With direct access to either Microsoft Exchange or IBM Lotus Notes e-mail servers, companies can save up to one third of the cost of mobile e-mail and the handling of personal information because there is no middleware or additional servers.
