Nov. 2, 2009 - PRLog -- Our forklift inventory includes much more than just the standard forklift. We also carry electric pallet jacks, hand pallet jacks, reach trucks and order pickers. With our huge fleet of machines and products, you are guaranteed to find the one most useful for your needs. If you are working on a large scale construction project and need a forklift to lift heavy parts weighing up to 3,500lbs, then our electric walkie stackers would be ideal. Or if you are working in a warehouse and need a more efficient way of transporting boxes of stock around, our pallet jacks would probably be best for you. Visit our website to see descriptions and applications of each of our products so you can submit your price quote form today.
