The home built by Gibraltar Homes in partnership with Paula Creamer, Ladies Touring Golf Professional (LPGA member), was selected as the 35th Sarasota Orchestra Association Designer Showcase Home. Open to the public with ticket February 13-March 7.

Dec. 21, 2009 - PRLog -- The Gibraltar Homes masterpiece built in partnership with Paula Creamer, Ladies Touring Golf Professional (LPGA member), was selected as the 2010 Sarasota Orchestra Association Designer Showcase Home. The Showcase is a major fundraiser for the Sarasota Youth Orchestra program.

Gibraltar Homes' Anna Maria home design located at 5510 Inspiration Terrace in Legends Bay, just north of the Sarasota Bradenton International Airport was designed to capture majestic panoramic views of Sarasota Bay. The 10,000 plus square foot, waterfront, custom architectural masterpiece includes every amenity imaginable. Indoor living offers unmatched luxury with uniquely planned areas and secluded suites providing exquisite entertaining space for intimate and larger gatherings. Outdoor living, dining and entertaining spaces were designed to resemble a lifestyle feeling of a magnificent waterfront resort.

The Sarasota Orchestra

For more than 60 years, the Sarasota Orchestra has been entertaining music lovers from around the world. With Artistic Director Leif Bjaland and President and CEO Joseph McKenna at the helm, the 80-member Orchestra performs more than 100 classical, pops and family concerts each year, and thrives as the oldest continuing orchestra in the state of Florida.

In 2008 the organization unveiled a new name and logo, along with a new musical program that offers new series, new concerts and a whole new way to experience live music, along with the timeless classics.

The Sarasota Orchestra has a dual mission, dedicated to exquisite performance and first-class musical education. The Sarasota Orchestra's acclaimed music education program includes the 50-year-old Youth Orchestra, which features five ensembles – the most advanced of which, The Youth Philharmonic, made its Carnegie Hall debut in 2008. The Sarasota Orchestra also offers music lessons for students of all ages and abilities, sponsors multiple community-outreach programs and is the parent program of the Sarasota Music Festival. All proceeds of the 2010 Designer Showcase will benefit the Youth Orchestra Program.
