In the end you should have a lot of information to help you in your planning of the birthday party.

Why Tinkerbell is a Girl's Favorite Tinkerbell first appeared in the public domain in 1911 in a novel by J.M Barrie. Disney breathed real life and recognition into Tinkerbell with their adaptation of Peter Pan, and she has gone on to become one of the most popular animated female characters. There is little doubt that her dress style with the short little green skirt and her spunky attitude has helped her to become a favorite amongst little girls, so Tinkerbell will undoubtedly be a hit at your girls next birthday party.

Steps for creating a Tinkerbell Birthday Party Planning a Tinkerbell themed party is very easy, and here are the steps that you should follow to help make it just perfect.

1. The most convenient way to host a Tinkerbell party is to order a complete theme package. Tinkerbell Ultimate Party Packs available online include coordinated invitations, plates, cups, forks, spoons, activity place mats, napkins, tablecloth, balloons, streamers, confetti and even candles for the cake! These amazing packages also include party favors, a Tinkerbell piata, cake topper, thank you notes and more.
2. The more time that you can give other parents to organize their children the better. The invitations should be sent out at least 2 weeks in advance.
3. If you plan on ordering the cake, place the order at least a week in advance. If you bake the cake, plan on baking it the night before.
4. The morning of the party decorate the house. Make it a fun, festive way for your family to be involved in the celebration of your little girl's birthday. Ask the birthday girl if she'd like to help - or keep the whole theme a surprise and have another member of the family take her out for a morning birthday walk or another distraction.
5. Decorate the table and place party favors at each place setting. Coordinating Tinkerbell party favor boxes are included in party packs, or you can purchase them separately.

Tinkerbell Birthday Party Favors It is very easy to thank all of your party guests for their attendance at the party by giving them a party favor at the end of all the celebrations.
