Jan. 21, 2010 - PRLog -- (St James, NY) - Nissan officials announced yesterday that Smithtown Nissan surpassed even their most optimistic sales projections to become the nations Second highest selling Nissan retailer.

“The last few months have really been an incredible sales environment,” remarked Joseph Rubio, owner of Smithtown Nissan . “The perfect combination of manufacturer incentives, customer demand, and dealer performance created a momentum that seemed to feed upon itself!”

The importance of a high sales ranking has always been clear within the automotive industry. Since available inventory is so closely tied to previous sales performance, consumers often find that the area’s largest retailers offer the largest discounts.
