Jan. 24, 2010 - PRLog -- Wendy Doster of the Trump Network is bringing her team to the Minneapolis area. This is a ground floor opportunity to be part of the boldest MLM company, The Trump Network, to hit in decades. Already becoming popular in New York and Florida, the business opportunity has yet to really sweep Minnesota.

Wendy is back in the workforce after taking years off to raise her children. She was a partner and founder of the furniture manufacturing company Haute House based in Los Angeles. She has since sold her stake in the company which continues to sell furniture to the Neiman Marcus/Horchow catalogs and many other retail stores. Before that, Wendy worked at Odney Advertising Co. in Minneapolis as an account executive. Previous to that Wendy lived and worked in New York City doing promotions for The Vertical Club, a chain of fitness centers in Manhattan. She is a graduate of Boston University with a degree in Advertising/mass communications with a minor in sociology and a concentration in finance.

Wendy passionately believes the Trump Network is the opportunity of a lifetime to take charge of her financial freedom and health through superior products. The Trump Network offers the chance to work from home and be partners with Donald Trump at the ground floor. Wendy looks forward to sharing this opportunity with anyone who has the desire, passion and commitment to market this company to others and sell revolutionary products.
