

All new Nissan Leaf get in line

Nissan of Elk Grove, a Northern California Nissan Dealership is getting ready to put a waiting list together for the zero emissions electric leaf...

March 19, 2010 - PRLog -- Nissan of Elk Grove is ready to take reservations and answer questions.

RESERVE: The reservation process will begin in April, shortly after the announcement of the price of the Nissan LEAF. Upon paying a fully refundable $100 reservation fee, registrants will be among the first in line able to order a Nissan LEAF.

ORDER: Nissan will begin taking firm orders in August, for deliveries when sales begin in the driver's particular market.

EARLY DELIVERIES: Rollout begins in select markets in December 2010, with vehicles available in all major launch markets quickly thereafter.

"The Nissan LEAF purchase process is effortless, transparent and accessible, offering value with a one-stop-shop approach for everything related to the car, including the assessment, permitting and installation of in-home battery charging units," said Carlos Tavares, Chairman, Nissan Americas. "We want everyone to feel good about having a car that is affordable, fun to drive and good for the environment."

Let us be your first stop to an ownership of a zero emissions electric vehicle with no need to ever pump gas or get an oil change again.
