

5th FCPA Boot Camp - Houston Edition

In direct response to your feedback and requests, this year's Houston Boot Camp will take you deeper into the world of global FCPA compliance.

Dec. 22, 2010 - PRLog -- Like in past years, the FCPA Houston Conference will focus in on all of the key “hot” topics that have come to be the hallmark of American Conference Institute’s FCPA Boot Camp series of events.

Additionally, this year’s installment will take you a step further by engaging you in several interactive panel discussions designed to facilitate dialogue and the sharing of best practices. Take note as you are guided through real-life mock scenarios and fact patterns designed to address your most pressing global FCPA compliance concerns.

Added benefits for this year’s conference will include:

- * An analysis and distribution of a model third party due diligence checklist
- * A special presentation by the FBI on investigative techniques in light of the recent FBI FCPA Sting
- * A review of real-life customs invoices to detect bribery payments in on-the-ground operations
- * Interactive panel discussion on the challenges of bidding and obtaining regulatory approvals

Seats at this event are expected to go quickly, particularly given this year’s new focus on practical information and best practice sharing. We recommend you reserve your seat early by calling 1-888-224-2480; faxing your registration to 1-877-927-1563; or registering online at www.AmericanConference.com/FCPAHouston.
