

VR Referrals offers free vacation rental classified ads in addition to regular VR listings

VR Referrals (www.VacationRentalReferrals.com) introduces free vacation rental classified ads as an additional tool for vacation rental owners to market their vacation rental properties online.

March 13, 2011 - PRLog -- In addition to adding vacation rental property listings, articles or creating Blogs, Vacation Rental Owners can now add FREE Vacation Rental Classified Ads to VR Referrals. This new section of VR Referrals site is available for ALL members, Free of charge. Vacation Rental Owners can take advantage of posting free classified ads in order to further market their vacation rental properties online.

Classified Ads have 2 main categories:

1. Last Minute Vacation Rental Specials
2. Vacation Rental Homes FOR SALE

Additional categories and subcategories are planned.

Vacation Rental Owners can upload up to 8 photos per ad. Photos are turned into a nice gallery view.

Google map will be automatically created with your advertisement once you provide your vacation rental property location. Contact form (which means that you do not have to reveal your e-mail address) will be automatically created with your ad, in a similar way that a contact form is displayed on vacation rental listing pages.

Ads run on the site for 30 days. Vacation Rental Owners can renew their ads before they expire.
